riting product	Summary/abstract Identification of omissions, abridgments, simplifications, or inventions; artistic expression, fact vs. fiction (poetic license), Identification of omissions, abridgments, simplifications, or space for debate
	Background information; additional information: dates, timelines, places Continuity of events before/after story Acknowledgement or resolution of controversy (dispute, question, or mystery)
	Idea/problem explanation
	Impact exploration
riting process
	Experience of writing the work/composition and revision process
	Contributing research (scholarly work, interviews, personal experience)
	Challenges in writing process
	Impactful discoveries or events in writing process uthor
	Author's relevant background
	Inspiration, intent, purpose
	Personal growth and learning Author's critical self-awareness ources
	Acknowledgement of other's contributions (esp. through anecdotes)
	References
	Credit for other's works
udience
	Acknowledgement of reader expectations; justification/explanation of divergence from reader expectations
	Answers to reader's questions
	Building connection with reader
	Asking feedback from readers